

Rain Garden

Completed December 2008

Eagle Scout - Cyle Schoonover

Cyle Schoonover designed and built a rain garden on the west side of the WATER Center's building. The garden will capture the runoff from the building's roof during light rainfall, allowing the soil and native plants to absorb the rain water.

